

RE Knowledge organiser: Who is a Muslim and how do they live? 1.6 (Double unit)

Skills:

Make sense of belief:

I can....

- talk about the fact that Muslims believe in God and follow the example of the Prophet Muhammed
- say what the words of the Shahadah are and give a reason why it is important to Muslims
- talk about three important things Muslims believe about Allah
- say who Muhammed is, why Muslims put PBUH after his name and why they believe he is important.
- retell a story about the Prophet and say what its message is
- retell the story of the giving of the Holy Qur'an to Muhammed

Understanding the impact

I can....

- give examples of how Muslims use the Shahadah and why it's important to them.
- give an example of how a story of the Prophet shows Muslims how to behave
- give examples of how, where, when and why Muslims read the Qur'an
- name the five pillars
- describe how Muslims pray

Make connections

I can....

- ask some questions about how Muslims live and what they believe.
- talk about what I think is good from the example of the Prophet
- talk about what I think is good about how Muslims show respect for their holy book

Vocabulary:

God	A very important religious being that people can't see, but know is there.
Allah	The name Muslims call their God.
Five pillars of Islam	The five things Muslims are expected to do.
Mosque	A building where Muslims go to pray.
Muslim	A person who follows Islam.
Shaadah	Special sentence which says what Muslims believe (first pillar).
Holy Qur'an	A very special book for Muslims.
Prophet	Special messengers sent from Allah.
Wudu	Washing hands, mouth, nostrils, arms, head and feet before prayer.
Imam	The leader of a Mosque.
Subha	Prayer beads.

Facts to learn:

- Muslims are followers of Islam and their God is called Allah.
- The Prophet Muhammed was a teacher who shared Allah's messages and stories.
- When Muslims talk about Muhammed, they say 'peace be upon him' to show he was very special.
- Muslims do not draw pictures of Allah or the Prophet Muhammed, but use special writing instead.
- A Muslim holy place of worship is called a Mosque.
- The Qur'an has stories and teachings in it that Muslims use as a guide to live their lives.
- Muslims need a prayer mat, water and a Qur'an to pray.
- Subha (prayer beads) have 99 beads on them to represent the 99 names of Allah.
- Muslims pray five times a day.

Images:

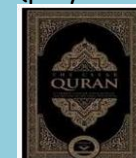

star and crescent
Mosquesymbol of Islam

subha
(prayer beads)

prayer mat

the Holy Qur'an