Tax collector	A person that collected money for the Romans

Forgiveness	Not being mad when someone upsets or hurts you
Pray	To talk to God

Learning outcomes:

Make sense of the text:

- Tell stories from the Bible and recognise a link with a concept of 'Gospel' or good news.
- Give clear, simple accounts of what Bible texts (such as the story of Matthew the tax collector) mean to Christians.
- Recognise that Jesus gives instructions to people about how to behave.

Understand the Impact:

- Give at least two examples of ways in which Christians follow the teachings studied about forgiveness and peace, and bringing good news to the friendless.
- Give at least two examples of how Christians put these beliefs into practice in the Church community and their own lives (for example: charity, confession).

Make connections:

- Think, talk and ask questions about whether Jesus' 'good news' is only good news for Christians, or if there are things for anyone to learn, exploring different ideas.

Have you ever been given good news?
What's the best news you've been given?
What is the best news you've ever told anyone?

The main things Jesus talked about were LOVE, PEACE and FORGIVENESS. Why do you think that these things are important?
